

Art and craft

Art and craft helps in all -round development of a child. It facilitates language development by providing an opportunity to pick up new words and expanding their knowledge. It also helps develop motor skills as it involves different movements like drawing, cutting, holding a paint brush to paint. Art and craft exhibitions and competitions are regularly conducted to cater the students, a platform to reinforce in their creative thoughts.

